About the bands

Devilskin are a four piece band from Hamilton New Zealand formed in June 2010. The band features the captivating Jennie Skulander on vocals. Jennie's incredible voice sweeps from whisper to roar, rips with power, drips with melody and captivates with sincerity. Bassist Paul Martin and Nail on lead guitar are the red bearded 'evil twins' and they electrify with powerful, truculent bass coupled with searing guitar riffs. Nic Martin's spectacular drumming and driving beat lays the foundation for a gig not to be forgotten. Devilskin's much anticipated debut album released on July 11 and went straight to the top of the charts remaining as the #1 Album and #1 Kiwi Artist Album for 3 weeks and achieving Gold sales after only 2 weeks, then going on to be certified Platinum. The band stomped onto the NZ rock scene with the infectious Little Pills and Never See The Light singles.

Villainy are one of the most exciting rock bands to emerge from New Zealand in recent times. The Ammunition Tour 2014 saw the band reconnect with their loyal fan base in a series of intimate gigs. Their debut album Mode. Set. Clear released in October 2012. The record hit #1 on the New Zealand Chart and was awarded the iconic prize for 2013 VNZMA Best Rock Album. It also featured four chart topping singles in Alligator Skin, Gather Yourself, Another Time and Ammunition. The Auckland based four-piece band consists of James Dylan (bass guitar), Neill Fraser (vocals and guitar), Dave Johnston (drums) and Thomas Watts (lead guitar).
