

JORDAN LUCK BAND ANNOUNCES DEBUT ALBUM & NATIONWIDE TOUR

The iconic JORDAN LUCK BAND will release their debut album on April 29.

This is the first album to be released by Jordan Luck since The Exponents and is released in time to celebrate NZ Music Month.

Jordan Luck says “The protection and preservation of the album, the L.P. as a listen, as a format, became my obsession with this beast. I believe we have achieved the goal”.

New Zealanders have such a close and personal affiliation with Jordan Lucks songs that the band have decided to throw it out to the New Zealand public to name the new album. Everyone that buys a presale tour ticket or presale album from the webstore has the opportunity to submit their album title for consideration- submissions close Friday April 8th. Jordan Luck will announce the chosen album name on Saturday April 9th on the Jordan Luck facebook page and website. The winner will be awarded four tickets to a tour show of their choice where they will be presented an exclusive album artwork print created and signed by Dick Frizzell and the Jordan Luck Band, and a tour merchandise pack.

The album features singles; Can I Help You and Only If You're Lonely.

Pre sales are now available at www.jordanluckband.com. Everyone who purchases the album or a tour ticket on presale will receive an automatic download of two songs from the album How is the air up there? and Only If You're Lonely.

The album release will be supported by the Edens of Suburbia NZ Tour which will see the Jordan Luck Band visiting:

Jordan Luck is the lead singer and songwriter for the New Zealand rock band The Exponents. The Exponents had a staggering 18 Top 40 singles over the years and Victoria was recently voted by public as the 8th greatest New Zealand song of all time. At the 2007 APRA Silver Scroll Awards Jordan Luck was named as the first inductee to the New Zealand Music Hall of Fame. He was appointed a Member of the New Zealand Order of Merit for services to music in the 2012 Queen's Birthday and Diamond Jubilee Honours.

The Jordan Luck Band is the super deluxe Frankenstein incarnation backing the iconic kiwi singer these days. Meticulously designed by Jordan Luck himself from the ground up, this band has just one purpose; to bring Jordan's blend of pop rock genius from the past, present and future to the masses! The Jordan Luck Band features Jordan Luck on Vocals, Bryan Bell on Guitar, Beaver on Drums, Rich Mixture on the Bass and Joe Walsh on Guitar.
